	From Juan - are there Spanish speaking staff? some do and do other things also Theresa has no Spanish speaking staff at this time - but they do have an interpreter on staff. Ali also mentioned that English as a second language and uses a language line and having an interpreter in person would be great to have a partner for the legal side with their program. Ali's interest is peaked to get direct/first hand information from a person speaking the language person. Mariah would be interested in getting resources written in the original language of the requester. Branda Grobaski grobaski@ceicmh.org 517-489-1439 says to Mariah: Please connect with me. We can bring you information and come and meet your staff so we can assist with your consumers :-) Juan says: My passion is working with Latino communities. Here is my contact information: juan@childandfamily.org Phone: (517) 882-4000 Ext: 137
